Thank you from Isabel Larcombe

Thank you for your prayers, messages, cards and visits while in hospital. It is so uplifting to feel the love and support of my precious St Paul's family.

Thank you Fr Steve, Shelley, Sue, Ann and Jayne for your pastoral care. Please continue to pray for me and my darling daughter Jan.

God bless you all,
Isabel.

Indigenous Pride Project

At the March meeting Parish Council gave unanimous approval to the Support Centre Team's proposal to develop a number of large painted murals on several of the walls in the vicinity of the hall and Support Centre. To be launched in NAIDOC week the project is designed to showcase local indigenous culture and talent in a positive way. To move the project forward a steering group will be formed, with the group open to anyone in the Parish with an interest in this area. A short meeting to offer further information about the project will be held in the Conference Room following today's service. Please bring your cuppa in with you.

Maundy Thursday

The service on Maundy Thursday is filled with symbolism. One major component of the service is the washing of feet during which the priest, taking the role of the servant (as Our Lord did) washes the feet of twelve people in a simple, but moving memorial to the lesson Jesus taught his disciples on that day. If you are willing to have your feet washed would you please sign the sheet at the back of the church today.

The last part of the service is the watch till midnight in which we keep watch with Our Lord as he prays to His Father for strength for the oncoming trial and crucifixion. I've broken the three hours between the end of the Maundy Thursday service until midnight into 15 minute sections. If you are able to come and keep watch with Jesus for one or more of these sessions would you please sign the sheet (again, available at the back). For safety reasons at least two people need to be present at all times.

Fr. Steve.

The CPR Course which was to be held on Thursday 30th March was CANCELLED owing to the weather situation. A new date will be advised in due course.

An Acknowledgement of Country

As we gather in this Parish Church, we acknowledge the Yuggera people, the traditional custodians of this land, and their elders past and present.

We honour the connection the traditional custodians have with this land.

TODAY'S SERVICE

8.30 am St Paul's ~ Holy Communion
Presiding ~ Rev'd Steve McMahon
Thanksgiving 3 ~ Page 133
11.00 am St Paul's ~ Baptism Service
12.00 noon St Paul's ~ Sudanese Service

Hymns: 333 All glory, praise and honour
339 O sacred head sore wounded
215 You servants of God
256 The Servant King
209 And can it be that I should gain

REFLECTION: Matt. 21.1-11; Isa. 50.4-9a; Ps. 31.9-18; Phil. 2.5-11; Matt.26.14 – 27.66.

In the longer version of the Passion, we hear that Judas goes to the authorities in order to betray Jesus for financial (and thus, short-term) advantage. We'd all like to think that we wouldn't do the same thing, but Judas, like us, was one of Jesus' followers. We could all fall into that same self-serving net. Despite Judas' treachery, Jesus sets out to fulfil God's mission, whether the crowds are crying Hosanna! or Crucify!

Pray that you will remain a faithful disciple, following Jesus and sharing in his sorrows.
(ABM Pew Reflections 2017)

Wednesday 3rd to Sunday 7th May 2017 ~ Quilt and Craft Display

Our annual Quilt and Craft show is coming up and we need your help in providing a wide variety of items to sell on our daily stall. Examples might be plants, crochet, knitting, cushions, scarves, floor rugs, handkerchiefs, coat hangers, dolls clothing, jams, pickles, cakes, lollies, woodwork, metalwork, collections, unusual craft and anything that you think our customers who have a wide range of interests might buy.

Our theme this year is "Australiana" and if you have items to display or suggestions they would be very welcome. Please call me if you would like more information. Verna Hunt, Convenor, St Pauls Quilt and Craft Display. Ph: 0409 062 485.

Friday 12th May ~ "Proms at St. Paul's"

St Paul's Anglican Church will proudly present a "Proms" concert as its 2017 Ipswich Festival event on Friday 12 May starting at 7:30 pm. The programme, in keeping with Proms tradition, will have a mix of classical, sacred and secular music. It will feature our historic pipe organ, string and brass orchestra and well-known choral items performed by choristers from St Paul's and other choirs including the West Moreton Anglican College Chorale, all under the direction of Mr Neil Flottmann. The concert's major work will be the much loved Vivaldi Gloria for choir, soloists and orchestra. There will also be some rousing favourites for audience participation that includes Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance and Parry's Jerusalem.

The concert will be presented in two halves with a 20 minute interval where complimentary refreshments will be served on the church's beautiful front lawn. Tickets priced at $35 adults and $25 concession can be purchased on-line through TryBooking.com.au or from the St Paul's Church office.

Please support this concert and invite your family, friends and neighbours to it as well so that we can again have a full house like last year's Organ Dedication
